Chanel and friends: a look at the life of a fashion legend

FASHION and beauty powerhouse Chanel has made its way into the hearts and homes of women the world over.

Regarded as one of the greatest fashion icons, Gabrielle Coco Chanel revolutionised the way women dressed – stripping them of their figure-hugging corsets and replacing them with elegant, sophisticated pantsuits, accessorised with costume jewellery. She is also responsible for the creation of the brand's signature fragrance, No. 5.

ESP Magazine has joined with dStore to offer readers a glimpse into the life of Coco.

As Australia's largest online department store, dStore knows just how important it is for women to smell their best at all times and prides itself on having the top-sellers, such as Chanel, in stock at all times.

Offering affordable prices and efficient delivery, you will receive the highest quality products. dStore recently won the NetGuide Best Australian Online Shopping Website Award.
